

Voice of U.P:

Raising the profile of Health and HIV/AIDS in the U.P Press

February 11-12, 2006, Lucknow, India

Training for the desk, city and district correspondents of the Dainik Jagran and other newspapers in Lucknow and U.P

Saturday 11th February

- 9:00-9:30 Arrival, registration
- 9:30-10:00 Opening of the workshop:
- Dr. Jaya Shreedhar, Technical Health Advisor, Internews: Internews and Kaiser International Media Fellowships
- Mr. Vinod Shukla, Resident Editor, Dainik Jagran, Lucknow
- 10:00-10:15 Getting to know one another; expectations from the workshop; setting objectives, workshop overview Jaya
- 10:15-12:30 Dr. Renu Garg, epidemiologist, HIV Unit, WHO/SEARO, New Delhi
Training session: 'Making sense of numbers in health reporting'
- 12.30-1.00 Lunch break
- 1:30-3:00 Site visit to UPSACS – Interaction with Dr. Mathur, Joint Director, UPSACS, "Overview of HIV/AIDS in U.P and activities of UPSACS"
- 3:30-5:00 Back to Park Inn workshop venue Dr. Ajay Khara, Joint Director, (Technical), National AIDS Control Organization: 'Trends in HIV/AIDS infections in India '
- Reporters leave to file stories in their own offices.

Sunday 12th February

- 9:00-9:30 Arrival and breakfast
- 9:30-10:15 Naresh Yadav- UP Network of PLHA, Kaushik – Naz Foundation and Jaya: training session - 'Ethical, legal and linguistic aspects of health reporting' Prepping on interviewing PLHA and vulnerable groups
- 10:15-11:45 Up Close and Personal – Interaction and group interview with Members of the U.P. Network of People Living With HIV
- 11.45:1:00 Tripti Tandon, HIV/AIDS Unit Lawyers Collective, Guest Lecture: 'Legal issues in HIV/AIDS and how to report on them'
- 1:00-1:45 Lunch break
- 1.45–3:30 Site visit to Bharosa's Sexual Health Project for MSM
- 4:00-5:00 Ideas for articles, feedback from PLHA and trainers
- 5:00 – 5:30 Evaluation, recap of curriculum, guidance on Follow up.
- 5:30 Vote of thanks by Jaya Shreedhar, for KFF/Internews