

Getting Medications to People with HIV/AIDS in the United States: The AIDS Drug Assistance Program

A Policy Forum & Release of the Latest Survey Findings from the National ADAP Monitoring Project

Thursday, March 30, 2006 12:00 p.m. E.S.T.

*Barbara Jordan Conference Center
Kaiser Family Foundation Building
1330 G Street, NW, Washington, D.C.*

Agenda

1. Welcome & Opening Remarks

- Jennifer Kates, Vice President and Director, HIV Policy, Kaiser Family Foundation
- Julie M. Scofield, Executive Director, National Alliance of State and Territorial AIDS Directors (NASTAD)

2. Major Themes and Findings from the Latest ADAP Survey

- Jennifer Kates, Kaiser Family Foundation
- Murray Penner, Deputy Executive Director of Domestic Programs, NASTAD

3. Moderated Panel Discussion

- Shana Christrup, Professional Staff Member, Senator Michael Enzi, Chairman of Health, Education, Labor & Pensions Committee
- Connie Garner, Democratic Policy Director for Disabilities and Special Needs Populations, Senator Edward Kennedy, Ranking Member of Health, Education, Labor & Pensions Committee
- Jay Adams, West Virginia HIV Care Coordinator, West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources
- Beth Scalco, Director, HIV/AIDS Program, Louisiana Office of Public Health
- Dwayne Haight, Manager, Texas HIV Medication Program, Texas Department of State Health Services
- Arnold Doyle, Director, Public Policy, Roche Pharmaceuticals
- Murray Penner, NASTAD

4. Q & A