

AIDS AT 30

Where We Are Today, and What's Ahead

Tuesday, June 21, 2011 - 4:00-6:00 pm

With Reception to Follow

The Barbara Jordan Conference Center
The Henry J. Kaiser Family Foundation
1330 G Street, Washington, DC

- 4:00 pm Welcome & Opening Remarks
Jen Kates, MA, MPA, Vice President & Director, Global Health and HIV Policy, Kaiser Family Foundation
- 4:10 pm Americans on HIV/AIDS Today, Key Findings from Two New Surveys:
- 2011 Kaiser Family Foundation National Survey on HIV/AIDS
Mollyann Brodie, PhD, Senior Vice President & Director, Public Opinion & Survey Research, Kaiser Family Foundation
 - Washington Post/Kaiser Survey of DC Residents
Jon Cohen, Director of Polling, The Washington Post
- 4:45 pm Comments and Update from the White House: National HIV/AIDS Strategy One Year Later
Jeff Crowley, MPH, Director of the Office of National AIDS Policy, The White House
- 5:00 pm Confronting the Epidemic Facing Black America
- Video: Greater Than AIDS: A Unique Public-Private Sector Response introduced by Tina Hoff, Senior Vice President & Director, Health Communication & Media Partnerships
 - Panel Discussion moderated by Darryl Fears, Health, Environment and Science Reporter, The Washington Post
 - Lisa Fitzpatrick, MD, MPH, Associate Professor of Medicine, Howard University and Consultant and Senior Technical Advisor, DC Department of Health
 - Representative Barbara Lee (D-CA, 9th)
 - Phill Wilson, President & CEO, Black AIDS Institute
- 6:00-7:30 pm Reception