

Krista Drobac

Partner

Krista Drobac is a partner at Sirona Strategies. She has more than twenty years of experience in federal and state government, and in public affairs. She was previously the director of the Health Division at the National Governors Association's Center for Best Practices, and a Senior Advisor at the Center for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) during the Obama Administration. She also served as Deputy Director of the Illinois Department of Healthcare and Family Services and spent five years on Capitol Hill as a health advisor to Senate Minority Whip Dick Durbin and Senator Debbie Stabenow.

In addition to providing health care consulting services, Krista serves as the Executive Director of the Alliance for Connected Care, a 501(c)(6) organization dedicated to ensuring that all patients are able to realize the benefits of telehealth and remote monitoring. She also serves as Co-Chair of Aligning for Health, a coalition advancing social determinants of health policy at the federal level. Krista is also the founder of Moving Health Home movinghealthhome.org, where she leads a team of regulatory and legislative professionals in implementing the vision of the coalition members around making the home a clinical site of care.

Krista holds a BA from the University of Michigan and an MPP from the Harvard University Kennedy School of Government.