

Michael Manolakis,
PharmD, PhD
Senior Vice President,
Pharmacy
Aon

Michael Manolakis is a Senior Vice President within Aon's Pharmacy Practice. His key responsibility is leading pharmacy thought leadership within the Pharmacy Practice and across Aon. He also leads teams that support the management of the pharmacy benefit for both commercial and public sector clients.

Prior to joining Aon, Michael served as a faculty member and Assistant Dean at Wingate University School of Pharmacy. He is published in numerous pharmacy journals and has presented to national audiences on issues related to pharmacy practice and ethics.

Before his time as an educator, Michael worked in the pharmacy benefit management industry for fifteen years. His roles included clinical product development, account management, and sales. He worked with clients in the public and private sectors, as well as with health plans and Medicaid programs.

Michael received his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Southern California and his PhD in philosophy and bioethics from the University of Tennessee. He practiced as a community pharmacist in Alexandria, Virginia upon completion of his pharmacist training.

Michael is co-founder of Javesca Feeds, a non-profit organization that works to end hunger and malnutrition in the United States and around the world through crisis relief and sustainable improvements. He also serves on the Board of Trustees for the Academy of Managed Care Pharmacy Foundation.

On a personal note, Michael is a father and a husband. He and Patti have been married for 29 years and are blessed with three boys. His family is made complete by Callie, their gentle black lab. In his spare time Michael enjoys golfing, which is more of a delightful walk in the park than anything else!
