CATHOLIC HEALTH ASSOCIATION IS STUDYING NEWLY PROPOSED HHS RULE ON CONTRACEPTIVE COVERAGE

WASHINGTON, DC (February 1, 2013) – The following statement is being released by Sr. Carol Keehan, DC, president and chief executive officer of the Catholic Health Association of the United States (CHA):

Following last year's proposed rule, the Catholic Health Association had asked during the comment period for some changes in the contraceptive coverage section of the rule on preventive services. Now that a new proposed rule has been released for review and comment, we look forward to studying it in relation to our members' expressed concerns and sharing our assessment of the changes.
